

New academic year new web store over the summer Microsoft DreamSpark was renamed to Microsoft Imagine Access. The uni still has University a premium subscription

Step 1

A screenshot of a Google search results page for the query "microsoft imagine". The search bar at the top shows the query. Below the search bar, there are tabs for "All", "News", "Images", "Shopping", "Videos", "More", and "Search tools". The results show "About 5,390,000 results (0.25 seconds)". A "A privacy reminder from Google" banner is displayed. The first search result is for "Microsoft Imagine" with the URL "https://imagine.microsoft.com/". Below the URL, it says "Bring your ideas to life. Find out how student developers can join Microsoft Imagine, and elevate their skills with developer tools and resources." and "Microsoft Imagine Access · About · Imagine Newsletter". A callout box points to the search bar with the text "Type into a search engine Microsoft Imagine".

Step 2

A screenshot of the Microsoft Imagine website. The top navigation bar includes the Microsoft logo, "Technologies", "Documentation", and "Resources". Below this, a purple navigation bar contains "Microsoft Imagine", "Account", "Downloads", "Code", "Compete", and "About". A callout box points to the "Downloads" tab with the text "Press on the downloads tab and select My School's web store". Below the navigation bar, there is a section titled "By using this site you agree to the use of cool" with a "Learn More." link. Below this, there is a "Software Catalog" section with a "My School's WebStore" link.
